KAC Families,

This is just to let you know that we will be holding practices next week at the normal evening times, as Josh Welles (our Head Coach) will still be teaching. We will begin morning practices the following week. More communication will be forthcoming asap.

We would also like to have a parent meeting next Monday, June 8th at around 7:15. This will finally provide the opportunity for you to ask questions and for us to clarify a few things regarding meets, volunteering, concession donations, etc. I apologize that this meeting has been delayed. It seems like everyone's schedule has been very busy with school winding down and all of the year end activities.

Thanks,

Brian Moore
KAC Parent Committee President
