

Date: July 10, 2009

Subject: Last Dual Meet & Conference Meet Sign Ups

Parents,

As our season is winding down to the last two weeks, I wanted to send a reminder to all to sign up for our last dual meet as well as the conference meet. First, there is a sign up sheet in our team room for our next and last dual meet, which will be next Thursday, July 16th at home, against Northview. Next Tuesday will be the last day to sign up for this meet.

In case there is any confusion regarding the conference meets, here is a little explanation of how the meets work and which meet your swimmer(s) will attend. Any swimmer who is 13 and up will automatically swim at the 13 & Older "A" Meet at Grand Haven High School. Any 12 & Under swimmer who has made an "A" time will be swimming at Rockford and any 12 & under swimmer who has not made an "A" cut will be swimming at Grandville. If you are not sure which meet your child will be attending, please feel free to ask one of the coaches next week at practice. There is only one sign up sheet for all of the conference meets in our team room and the last day to sign up will be next Friday, July 17th. The entry deadline for these meets are VERY strict and there are no exceptions to sign up late, so be sure to sign up early next week. The meet info for all three meets can be found in our team room, including dates and times for all three meets. You may also find this info on our team website: www.kentwoodaquaticsclub.com.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any further questions. Thanks and I hope to see everyone sign up for both meets!

Coach Josh