Subject: KAC Practice Tonight

Just a reminder that we will be having KAC practice tonight. We will also be setting up for our invitational meet tomorrow if anyone would like to get out of the stands and help on deck for a while. Just come down if you see us working around the pool and we can find something for you to do. Thanks in advance for the assistance.

We did get word this morning that the high school meet that was canceled last night has been rescheduled to next Tuesday from 6:00pm to 9:00pm. This means that we will not be able to have practice next Tuesday and will have to cancel. Unfortunately, the high school teams take precedence over everyone in the competition pool and we have no other choice. We are already scheduled for a Wednesday practice, since there is another meet on Thursday. So, we will have practice next week on M,W,F barring any unforeseen weather issues.

Thanks,

KAC
